PRESS RELEASE

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY RICHARD S. HARTUNIAN announced that ANCELMO ALLAICO-TENESACA, also known as Randy Jefferson Tenezaco, age 29, of Albany, New York, was sentenced today by Senior United States District Judge Lawrence E. Kahn, in Albany, New York, for illegally reentering the United States after removal. ALLAICO-TENESACA was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of "time served" (114 days), followed by two years of supervised release. ALLAICO-TENESACA was immediately remanded to the custody of the Department of Homeland Security for removal proceedings.

Today's sentencing followed ALLAICO-TENESACA's March 3, 2010 guilty plea.

ALLAICO-TENESACA, a citizen of Ecuador, was involuntarily removed from the United States to Ecuador on June 16, 2004 following his felony conviction in Trenton, New Jersey of the offense of Endangering the Welfare of a Child. On or about October 8, 2009 ALLAICO-TENESACA was arrested by the Albany County Sheriffs Department. On February 3, 2010 ALLAICO-TENESACA was encountered by an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officer at the Albany County Jail and determined to be a previously removed illegal alien.

This matter was investigated by the Department of Homeland Security, Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement(ICE), Albany, New York and the Albany County Sheriffs Department.
